

Arts and Commerce College, Kasegaon

N. S. S. Profile

Introduction:

N. S. S. is the backbone of the college. The future of the nation depends on the youths. N. S. S. creates path of culture for the youths. The higher education is not only limited with the education amongst four walls of the college but it establishes relations with the development of society. N. S. S. department is one of the important departments which plays the role of mediator between education and society.

The Indian Government has launched the N. S. S. at college level in 1969 on the occasion of birth-anniversary of Mahatma Gandhi, the Father of Nation. The college is being continued the unit of 100 students from the beginning of the college. The college organizes various activities related with society, education, environment, health etc.

Aim and Objectives:

1. To develop Personality of students through community service.
2. To instill the value of work / labour.
3. To create emotive social contribution amongst the students.
4. To develop the service-oriented attitude.
5. To create awareness about the contribution for society.
6. To nurture national integration and social healthy relations.
7. To create awareness about social and environmental problems.
8. To create attitude about communication skills, Leadership qualities and democracy.
9. To train them to face instant calamities like flood, earthquake etc.
10. To bring together the concepts of educational values, social and personality development.
11. To make their minds for independence, character and confident mentality.

Moto of NSS:

The Moto of the National Service Scheme is “NOT ME BUT YOU”

- The Moto of NSS “NOT ME BUT YOU” is terse expression.
- The meaning of it is very deep and suggestive and is keeping with the spirit of service for others.
- The expression stands for two things: Forgetting and surrendering the self, and rendering self less service to others.
- The word ‘Not’ before ‘Me’ is to reduce the self to nothing and the word ‘But’ before ‘you’ can be expanded as – “I do not live for me but for you”.

Symbol of NSS:

- The NSS symbol is based on the “Rath” wheel of the Konark Sun Temple situated in Odisha.
- The navy blue colour indicates the cosmos of which the NSS is a tiny part, ready to contribute its share for the welfare of the mankind.
- The Red colour in the badge indicates that the NSS volunteers are full of blood i.e. lively, active, energetic and full of high spirit.
- The giant wheels of the Sun Temple portray the cycle of creation, preservation and release, and signify the movement in life across time and space.
- It stands for community as well as change and implies the continuous striving of National Service Scheme for social transformation and upliftment.

NAAC Peer Team Visiting NSS Office

