Seminar Report

On the 13th of September 2023, a seminar titled "NEP 2020 and Commerce and Management Education" was organized by the Commerce and Planning Association under Lead college scheme. Seminar was organized at 10.00 am in Media room. The seminar aimed to create awareness among students about the National Education Policy (NEP) 2020 and its implications on commerce and management education. The event witnessed active participation from 84 students. The seminar featured Dr. Ram Naik, Assistant Professor at KRP Kanya Mahavidyalaya Islampur, as the resource person. I/c Principal Dr. B. K. Mane was Chairperson of the seminar. Prof Kiran Patil Co-ordinator of Lead College was present in the event. Dr. Naik's extensive expertise in the field of education made him a suitable guide for discussing the NEP 2020 and its relevance to commerce and management students.

The seminar commenced with a warm welcome by Dr. Megha Dixit. She set the stage for the event by highlighting the importance of the NEP 2020 and how it aligns with the goals of skill development. Dr. Bharat Kharat introduced the resource person, Dr. Ram Naik, to the audience.

Dr. Ram Naik started his presentation by providing an overview of the National Education Policy 2020. He explained the structural changes introduced by the NEP 2020, emphasizing the shift towards a more holistic and skill-oriented approach to education. Dr. Naik elaborated on how these changes are particularly relevant to commerce and management students. He also discussed the various opportunities and challenges presented by the NEP 2020 for students pursuing commerce and management education. He highlighted the emphasis on interdisciplinary learning, flexibility in curriculum design, and the integration of vocational skills. Dr. Naik also addressed potential challenges in implementing these changes effectively.

Prin. Dr. B.K. Mane, the Chairperson of the program, emphasized the importance of soft skills in a student's educational journey. He underscored that the development of soft skills should start during college days to better prepare students for future professional roles.

Prof. B.M. Sankpal concluded the seminar by extending his gratitude to Dr. Ram Naik for his insightful presentation. He thanked all the participants and Anchors Miss. Vaishnavi Patil and Miss Siddhi Todkar for their active involvement and encouraged them to explore the opportunities presented by the NEP 2020 in their academic pursuits.

The seminar on "NEP 2020 and Commerce and Management Education" served as a platform for students to gain a deeper understanding of the policy changes that are shaping the future of education in India. Dr. Ram Naik's expertise and the active participation of students made the event informative and engaging. It highlighted the need for students to adapt to the evolving educational landscape and develop the necessary skills to excel in their chosen fields.

In conclusion, the seminar was a significant step toward creating awareness about the NEP 2020 and its implications on commerce and management education. It encouraged students to embrace the opportunities presented by the policy and prepare themselves for a future that values both knowledge and skill development.
